Subsection 5. If a holiday falls when an employee is on sick leave, the employee shall be changed from sick leave status to holiday status.

Subsection 6. Accrued and available sick leave will be allowed for short-term necessary attendance to the illness of a member of the employee's immediate family until other attendance can be reasonably obtained, to attend a funeral in the immediate family, to receive medical, dental or eye examinations, or for other disability related emergencies.

The Federation retains the right to designate which employees will participate. An employee must be pre-approved by their supervisor for the timing of participation. An employee shall document time spent on Federation business in the comment section of the Employer's time reporting system.

Article XI - Grievance

Section 1. Steps of Grievance Process.

Having a desire to create and maintain labor relations harmony between them, the parties hereto agree that they will promptly attempt to adjust all disputes involving the interpretation, application or alleged violation of a specific provision of this Agreement, in accordance with the following steps:

Step 1. Any dispute involving the interpretation, application or alleged violation of a specific provision of this Agreement shall be taken up with the employee's immediate supervisor within fifteen (15) working days of the purported grievable act. The immediate supervisor shall have five (5) working days to respond. All grievances must be discussed with the immediate supervisor prior to the filing of a formal grievance and no formal grievance may be filed until the immediate supervisor has been given opportunity to attempt resolution.

Step 2. If the grievance is not resolved informally, a formal grievance may be presented in writing within ten (10) working days from the receipt of the immediate supervisor's response of Step 1 to the State CIO or assigned designee. The management representative at the second step shall have ten (10) working days from receipt of the grievance to respond in writing.

Step 3. If the grievance is not resolved at Step 2, it may be presented to the Director of the Department of Administration or his/her designee within ten (10) working days of the receipt of the Step 2 response. The Director of the Department of Administration, or assigned designee, shall have fifteen (15) working days to respond to the grievance in writing.

Step 4. Should the Federation consider the decision of the Director of the Department of Administration, or assigned designee, is unsatisfactory, the Federation shall, within fifteen (15) working days of receipt of such decision, notify the DOA and the Chief of State Office of Labor Relations of its decision to take the grievance to final and binding arbitration.

Section 2. Rules of Grievance Processing

Subsection 1. Time limits of any stage of the grievance procedure may be extended by written mutual agreement of the parties at that step and should not be unreasonably withheld.

Subsection 2. A grievance not filed or advanced by the grievant within the time limits provided shall be deemed permanently withdrawn as having been settled on the basis of the decision most recently received. Failure on the part of the Employer's representative to answer within the time limit set forth in any step will entitle the employee to the next step.

Subsection 3. An appointed authority may replace any titled position in the grievance procedure, provided that such appointee has full authority to act in the capacity of the person being replaced.

Subsection 4. When the grievance is presented in writing there shall be set forth all of the following: (1) the Article(s) and section(s) of the collective bargaining agreement alleged to have been violated; (2) a complete statement of the grievance and facts upon which it is based; and (3) the remedy or corrective action requested.

Subsection 5. Those employees desiring to use alternative grievance procedures may not pursue the same complaint under the provisions of this contractual procedure. Similarly, an employee pursuing a grievance under the provisions of this contract may not pursue the same grievance under another procedure.

Subsection 6. In the event of a classification related grievance, the statutory classification appeal route shall be followed wherein the grievance may be submitted to the Board of Personnel Appeals for final resolution. Where a question arises as to whether the matter falls under the jurisdiction of the Board or could possibly be arbitrated, the matter shall be referred to the Board for a decision.

Section 3. Rules of Arbitration

Subsection 1. Within ten (10) working days of receipt of the Federation's notice of its intent to arbitrate a grievance, the parties shall call upon the Board of Personnel Appeals for a list of five potential arbitrators. Each party may also submit a potential arbitrator of their choice.

Subsection 2. Each party shall be entitled to strike names from the list in alternate order and the name so remaining shall be the arbitrator. A coin toss determines which party shall have the first strike. The arbitrator shall render a decision within twenty working days of the hearing and that decision shall be final and binding.

Subsection 3. Each party shall share equally the cost of the arbitrator. In the event one of the parties wants transcripts from the proceedings of the arbitration, the party requesting the transcripts shall pay all costs.

Subsection 4. The arbitrator may not add to, subtract from or modify the terms of this Agreement.

Article XII - Employment Security

Section 1. A probationary period shall be utilized for the most effective adjustment of a new employee and for the elimination of any employee whose performance does not, in the judgment of the employee's supervisor, meet the required standard of performance.

The initial probationary period is twelve (12) months. The Employer must set and inform the new employee in writing of the length of the probationary period at the time of hire. The Employer may also establish in writing, conditions of probation or set performance evaluation criteria for new employees eligible for permanent status. If the Employer determines at any time during the probationary period that the services of the probationary employee are unsatisfactory, the employee may be separated upon written notice from the Employer.

The Employer may extend the length of a probationary period for a maximum of six additional months. When a probationary period is extended, the Employer must notify the employee and the Federation of the extension in writing on or before the end of the original probationary period. The notice must include the length of and reason for the extension. Employer may also extend or amend any written conditions of probation or performance evaluation criteria and may include these changes in the written notice. An employee will not attain permanent status until the employee successfully completes the extended probationary period.

Section 2. The Employer may discharge any employee with permanent status only for good cause. The Employer shall furnish an employee subject to discharge with a written statement of the grounds and specific reason(s) for such actions and shall in addition notify the Federation of the removal of an employee for cause. An employee with permanent status may appeal his/her discharge through the grievance procedure. This in no way limits management's prerogative to lay off employees in accordance with the layoff and recall procedure in this collective bargaining agreement.

Article XIII - Seniority

Section 1. Seniority means the length of continuous service with the agency since the last date of hire.

Section 2. Seniority shall cease to accrue during a period of layoff or leave without pay that exceeds sixty working days or after a permanent transfer out of the bargaining unit.

Previously credited service, however, will not be lost and an employee who is recalled or transfers back into the bargaining unit will retain all prior seniority. If leave without pay is for active-duty military service, seniority shall continue to accrue as if the employee were continuously employed during the leave. Seniority is relinquished upon termination, retirement, or discharge for cause.

Section 3. Recall from layoff shall be in reverse order of layoff. The Employer shall notify a laid off employee to return to work by sending a certified, return receipt letter to the last known address for the employee with a copy to the Federation and shall therein notify the employee that failure of the employee to notify the Employer of his/her intent to return to work within ten calendar days of the mailing of said letter shall constitute a forfeiture of his/her right to return to work. Recall rights shall be limited to a period of two years following the date of layoff.

Section 4. No permanent employee shall be laid off while temporary or probationary employees in the same skill are retained.

Section 5. The Employer shall give permanent employees subject to lay off a minimum of twenty-one calendar days advance notice and shall deliver a copy of such to the Federation, which shall be allowed an opportunity to comment.

Section 6. The Employer shall consider employees' skills, qualifications, capabilities, performance, and seniority when making reduction-in-workforce or layoff decisions. The Employer shall first assess the skills, qualifications, capabilities, and performance. If that assessment does not adequately distinguish between, or among, employees, Employer shall then consider the employees' seniority to make the decision.

Article XIV – Vacancies and Promotions

Whenever a vacancy or newly created position occurs within the bargaining unit, the Employer will prepare a job notice and post the position externally with email notice given to the Federation members. Members who apply for the position will be hired over external candidates where qualifications for the position are substantially equal.

Article XV - Pay and Hours

Section 1. Conditions relative to and governing wages and salaries for unit members, for the duration of this agreement, exclusive of longevity pay and contribution toward health insurance as provided in statute, are contained in the pay matrix attached as Addendum B of this Agreement.

Section 2. A regular workweek shall consist of five regular workdays, Monday through Friday inclusive, totaling 40 hours.

Section 3. Management may approve an individual alternate work schedule that deviates from a regular workweek. Management may alter, or rescind, an alternate work schedule with a minimum 10 business day notice.

Section 4. With prior management approval, employees may flex their regular daily work schedule.

Section 5. Substantial personal business will not be conducted during office hours. The Employer recognizes, however, that some personal business must be conducted during business hours. If time is spent taking care of personal affairs, an employee must notify the supervisor that the employee is working on personal business and take appropriate leave.

Section 6. Full-time employees who are called out for work and report outside the regular shift shall be paid for a minimum of two hours at a rate of one and one-half times the regular rate of pay, except for holidays, as enumerated in the Holiday Article, which will be paid at two and one-half times the regular rate of pay. Each hour after two hours shall also be paid at the overtime rates. It is understood that this provision does not apply to overtime work, which is contiguous with the regular or designated workday.

Section 7. If an employee is selected and given written authorization by a Management designee to temporarily fill a vacancy in a higher graded job, employee shall be paid at the higher grade with the exact rate of temporary pay to be set by the Pay Plan rules. The temporary assignment must be filled for a minimum of one pay period before any pay adjustments are made. Management will not adopt a policy of refusing to authorize such assignments.

Section 8. Bargaining units must ratify a completely integrated collective bargaining agreement prior to receiving a negotiated increase in pay. There will be no retroactive payments for agreements that are not ratified. Subject to the foregoing, employees shall receive a $.55 increase in their base wage on the first full pay period which includes November 1, 2022.

Article XVI – Evaluations and Warnings

Section 1. An employee may request and receive a copy of his/her current position description at any time.

Section 2. Employer shall use a performance evaluation process, and may adopt the statewide performance evaluation process, in the evaluation of employees covered by this Agreement. Agency supervisors will evaluate employees covered by this agreement on their work performance. Supervisors may also evaluate employees on competencies required for the position or work unit and shall consider employee behaviors. .

Section 3. When performance appraisals are prepared by the employee's immediate supervisor and the next higher supervisor, the results of the combined evaluation shall be transmitted to the employee in the form of a copy of his/her performance appraisal. The immediate supervisor shall discuss the evaluation with the employee and adhere to electronic acknowledgement processes within the Talent system. If the employee desires to submit a brief written statement in explanation or mitigation of any remark on the performance appraisal form, the statement shall be Submitted in writing and the response shall be placed in the employee's personnel file. The employee has five working days to submit a statement.

Section 4. No adverse information shall be placed in the personnel file of the employee that does not bear either the signature or initials of the employee indicating that s/he has been shown the material, or a statement by a supervisor that the employee has been shown the material and refused to sign it. A copy of any such material shall be furnished to the employee upon request.

Section 5. Material placed in the personnel files of an employee without conformity with the provisions of this section must first be conformed before the Employer may use the information in any subsequent evaluation or disciplinary proceeding involving the employee.

Section 6. The Employer will afford employees their Weingarten rights.

Section 7. Employees will be provided relevant documentation during their due process meeting. Employer shall afford employees a due process hearing before the employer makes a decision regarding disciplinary demotion, discharge, or suspension without pay of more than ten days.

Article XVII - Retirement

All employees shall be covered by the Public Employees' Retirement System as provided in state law.

Article XVIII - Notification of Policy Changes

The Employer shall ensure reasonable access to the Federation and each employee an up-to-date policy of its rules, regulations and policies on employment related matters. The Federation shall be notified of any proposed changes or additions to personnel rules, regulations and policies issued by the Employer, and those issued by the Department of Administration of which the Employer is aware, sufficiently in advance to allow discussion and comment by the Federation.

Article XIX - Payroll Deductions

In addition to the monthly dues' deductions authorized in this Agreement, bargaining unit members shall be allowed to authorize Management to deduct from their paychecks such amounts that they desire in order to participate in programs that have the prior approval of both Management and the Federation.

Article XX - Labor/Management Relations Committee

Section 1. The Employer and the Federation agree to the establishment of a Labor/Management Relations Committee (LMRC) which shall meet to discuss concerns of both parties and to foster improved communications between the Employer and the members of the bargaining unit. The Committee shall meet at the request of either party, but not more than quarterly unless exigent circumstances exist. The topic(s) of the meeting must be disclosed at the time of the request. Additional items may be discussed at the meeting if agreed to by both parties. Labor/Management Relations Committee meetings are not negotiations and cannot add to, subtract from, or otherwise modify the terms of the Collective Bargaining Agreement.

Section 2. The Committee shall be composed of no more than three members appointed by the Employer, and no more than three members appointed by the Federation.

Section 3. The Committee shall meet at a mutually agreed time and date.

Section 4. Employees shall be granted one hour of paid release time per quarter to attend Labor/Management Relations Committee meetings if the meetings are scheduled during normal working hours, provided the employer is notified in advance and the release time is arranged through normal leave request procedures. The Federation retains the right to designate which employees will participate. An employee shall document time spent on Federation business in the comment section of the Employer's time reporting system.

Article XXI - Terms, Amendments and Modifications

Section 1. This Agreement shall be effective upon signature of both parties and ratification by the Federation and shall remain in full force and effect through June 30, 2023. Either party shall notify the other in writing at least sixty days prior to the expiration date that they desire to renegotiate this Agreement. If the Federation gives such notice, it agrees to notify the Chief of the State Office of Labor Relations in writing of such requested negotiations at the same time such notice is given to the agency. In the event such notice is given, negotiations shall begin no later than thirty days prior to the expiration date.

Section 2. The parties acknowledge that during negotiations which resulted in this Agreement, each had the unlimited right and opportunity to make demands and proposals with respect to any subject or matter not removed by law from the area of collective bargaining, and that the understandings and agreements arrived at by the parties after the exercise of that right and opportunity are set forth in this Agreement.

Therefore, the Employer and the Federation for the duration of this Agreement, each voluntarily and unqualifiedly waives the right, and each agrees that the other shall not be obligated to bargain collectively with respect to any subject or matter specifically referred to or covered by this Agreement. This Article shall not be construed to in any way restrict parties from commencing negotiations under Section 4, or under applicable law, on any succeeding agreement to take effect upon termination of this Agreement.

Section 3. The Federation and the Employer agree that there will be no stoppage of work or lockout during the term of this Agreement except that the Federation shall have the right to engage in concerted activity after December 31, 2022, for matters pertaining to wages and benefits in the FY 2024-2025 biennium, and the Employer may lock out as allowed by law.

Section 4. By execution of this agreement, the Federation agrees that negotiations on pay are concluded for the term of this contract. Any further agreements on pay covering the 2022-2023 biennium for the term of this contract will be negotiated through the master negotiations of the state employee pay plan (traditionally HB 13).

Article XXII - Severability

In the event that any provision of this Agreement shall be declared invalid at any time or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction or through government regulations or decree, such decision shall not invalidate the entire Agreement, it being the expressed intention of the parties hereto that all other provisions not declared invalid or unenforceable, shall remain in full force and effect.
