Alternate work schedules may be developed and implemented by the union and the employer. Should any existing schedule be determined to require modification, the applicable union shall be noticed and shall be involved formally in all aspects of decision making prior to the final implementation of a new work schedule. It is understood that if no agreement is reached after discussion with the union, the Employer may implement necessary schedule changes. The Employer agrees that such changes shall be based on need and recognizes that employees have a right to expect continuity in shift and days off unless the Employer provides substantive basis for change.
- b. Work Week: Forty (40) hours shall constitute a work week.
- c. Shifts: The shift for regular RN positions will not be on an alternating basis, except by agreement between the employee and the Employer. Positions designated as "flex" may alternate between shifts.
- d. The employer may make temporary changes for emergent situations in bargaining unit employees' hours of work and days off to meet staffing requirements. Employer will give as much advance notice as possible regarding temporary schedule changes; however, it is understood that advance notice may not be possible in emergency situations. Management reserves the right to modify any existing or proposed work schedule which has been determined by either labor or management to jeopardize patient care, or shall negatively impact the ability of management to facilitate required programming or care. All staff who are directly impacted by a work schedule change shall be noticed a minimum of thirty (30) days prior to the formal implementation date.

Section 2. Meals and Meal Period. An uninterrupted thirty (30) minute lunch break will be scheduled for each employee. In the event an employee is not effectively released from work for the entire thirty (30) minute lunch period, the employee shall be compensated for the entire thirty (30) minutes. Employees who elect to take their lunch at the facility may receive a free meal but will not be compensated unless they are on scheduled work time.

Section 3. Breaks. Each employee will have a fifteen (15) minute break the first half of the workday, and a fifteen (15) minute break the second half of the workday.

Section 4. Scheduling. In determining temporary schedule changes, management will evaluate on a case by case basis with consideration to the needs of the facility, seniority, and employee's interests and availability. Temporary schedule changes are not to exceed fifteen (15) days. If the Employer anticipates that a temporary schedule change will exceed fifteen (15) days, the Employer and the Union will meet to discuss terms of schedule change.

Section 5. Mandatory Meetings. The Employer may require the employee to attend certain meetings. Should attendance be required, the Employer will provide a minimum of fourteen (14) days advance notice. Employees will be paid for actual time in attendance.

The Employer agrees to schedule staff meetings during regular working hours whenever possible. Employees who choose to attend will be paid for actual time in attendance. Meetings minutes will be posted electronically. Employees who choose not to attend will be responsible for reading staff meeting minutes and following direction, etc. contained therein.

Section 8. Holdover Time. By definition any nurse that works past the conclusion of their regularly scheduled shift up to but not to exceed a maximum of two (2) hours is considered to have been held over. Any opportunity for holdover work shall be offered to volunteers first. Should a staff nurse volunteer to cover the vacancy the shift will be awarded in order of seniority with longest tenure being given top preference. In the event no nurse volunteers to accept the work it will be mandatorily assigned to the nurse or nurses on-duty in order of seniority with the shortest tenure used to select the nurse who will perform the work. All future mandatory selections using seniority shall be made using the system which progressively rotates candidates using seniority from the least to greatest in tenure. Each nurse will be required to accept the mandatory tenure using the rotation system. On-duty staff nurses will not be mandated for another holdover work assignment until all on-duty staff nurses have participated in the rotation. The employer will make every effort to provide alternative staffing prior to making the decision to use a holdover assignment.

Section 9. Shift Extend

In the event of an unfilled shift as the result of a call-off, the Employer will offer the shift to members of per diem nursing pool first. If no per diem nurse accepts the shift the Employer will offer the shift to all staff RNs and should a staff RN volunteer to cover the vacancy, the shift will be awarded in order of seniority with longest tenure being given top preference.

If the shift is not filled, the on-duty RN shall be required to extend their shift up to the first six (6) hours of the vacant shift. The RN scheduled for the shift following the vacant shift may be expected to extend their shift up to six (6) hours prior to the beginning of said shift, and this shall not be the same nurse, unless there is mutual agreement between the nurse and management. The oncoming RN that is shift extending shall have a minimum of eight (8) hours of notice.

Shift extend shall consist of a minimum of two (2) hours, up to a maximum of six (6) hours past the scheduled conclusion/beginning of an employee's regular shift. Other than during a formal declared emergency situation, no nurse shall work more than one eighteen (18) hours extended shift in any consecutive forty-eight (48) hours period, unless there is mutual agreement between the nurse and management. Any circumstance requiring a nurse to remain on duty for less than two (2) hours after the conclusion of their scheduled shift shall not be considered a "shift extend".

Management agrees that continuing education is recognized as a viable concept for staff development. When employees are required by management to attend workshops, training sessions, or conferences they will be paid salary, transportation, per diem, and lodging according to State law and policy. The Employer will continue to compensate each RN for licensure fees.

Section 1. Upon prior approval by Employer and successful completion, the Employer will reimburse RNs the testing and renewal fees set by the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC) or the appropriate certifying body, for certification in one of the following; psychiatric, mental health nursing, medical surgical, and other certifications as deemed appropriate by management.

If the employee fails to give such notification, the absence may be charged to leave without pay, and may be subject to disciplinary action. Absence in excess of one (1) shift without notice to the Employer from the employee shall constitute just cause for immediate discharge, unless failure to give such notification was due to circumstances beyond the control of the employee.

Subsection 2. Sick leave exhaustion. Sick leave used must not exceed the amount accrued by the employee. If an employee is ill and has exhausted all sick leave credits, other accrued leave may be used.

Subsection 3. Employees who become ill on vacation. In the event an employee on annual leave becomes ill, the employee shall be afforded the right to change annual leave to sick leave and to use available sick leave credits upon furnishing the Employer acceptable medical certification.

Subsection 6. Sick leave payout. Section 3. Annual leave. Employees shall earn leave credits in accordance with 2-18-612 MCA.

Annual leave of five days or more must be requested three months in advance and will be approved or denied no later than one month prior to the leave. Preference shall be given to the first request. - b. In the case of rehire an employee who has been notified to return to work but fails to notify the Employer of their intent to continue employment within seven calendar days will be considered to be terminated.

Section 4. To be absent from the job due to a leave of absence without pay exceeding fifteen (15) calendar days will be considered lost time for purposes of seniority; however, previous service within a covered position in the bargaining unit shall count toward seniority. The Union will be responsible for informing the Employer of a change in an employee's seniority date in following this provision.

Section 5. A seniority roster shall be maintained by the Employer. A copy shall be provided to the Union upon written request. A seniority roster shall be provided once annually by Management and more often by mutual agreement.

Either party may initiate negotiations on the provision declared invalid.

ARTICLE 16 TERM OF AGREEMENT

Section 1. This Agreement is effective as of the 1st day of July 2023 and shall remain in full force and effect through the 30th day of June, 2025.
